Q: What is the difference between Thesis and Non-thesis Master's programs?

A: Non-thesis master's programs are designed to furnish the student with necessary academic background for further professional development. A minimum of 10 courses and a term project should be completed.

Master's program with thesis ensures that a student accesses information and reviews, interprets and evaluates it through the use of scientific research techniques. Minimum course requirement is the completion of minimum 21 credits; comprising seven 3 -credit courses, seminar course, and writing and defending a research/thesis work.

Q: I am yet to graduate. Can I apply?

A: Senior students who are going to graduate at the end of the semester can submit their application to receive conditional admission. During registration, original bachelor's degree diploma and transcript must be submitted.

Q: I am studying in English. Do I still need to prove my English Level?

A: Yes. English language requirements are different in graduate programs. Please visit <https://grad.emu.edu.tr> for acceptable tests, other conditions and English Language Test and Support program.
